

ABSTRACT

The present invention provides a wood additive thermoset composite (WATC) to mold a three dimensional product, such as a speaker cabinet, which combines the favorable qualities of both wood and thermosetting resin/plastic. In particular, the WATC has at least about 50% wood by weight with the rest substantially being thermosetting resin material by weight.

Library: LosAngeles; Document #: 37261v1